ORANGE COUNTY FORUM

Keeping Orange County Informed

Luncheon Program

Featuring

Carly Fiorina

Candidate for United States Senate

Thursday, March 4, 2010

11:30 a.m. - Reception 12:00 Noon – Lunch

The Hilton Irvine

(Across from Orange County Airport)
18800 MacArthur Boulevard – Irvine, California

While she is perhaps best known as the former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hewlett-Packard Company (HP), Carly Fiorina is now a candidate in the primary campaign to become the GOP nominee in the race to unseat U.S. Senator Barbara Boxer. A self-made woman, she started her business career as a secretary and went on to become the first, and to date, the only woman to lead a Fortune 20 company. Carly served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hewlett-Packard Company (HP) from 1999 to 2005, leading the reinvention of the legendary company, successfully steering it through the dot-com bust and the worst technology recession in 25 years. During her tenure, HP's revenues doubled, from $44 billion to $88 billion, with improved profitability in every product category. Today, HP is the largest technology company in the world... Today, Carly is one of the most recognized business leaders in the world and an opinion leader who chairs the Board of the Technology Policy Institute, served on the Board of Business Executives for National Security, is a Global Envoy for Lance Armstrong's LIVESTRONG organization and serves as vice chair of the Initiative for Global Development. Please join us as Carly shares her perspectives on the critical issues facing the U.S. Senate and, indeed, the nation as we look to the future.
