Luncheon Program

Featuring

Michael Rossi

Senior Advisor for

Jobs & Business Development

Office of the Governor
State of California

Wednesday, November 30, 2011

11:30 a.m. - Reception 12:00 Noon - Lunch

Hilton Irvine

18000 MacArthur Boulevard
(across from OC/John Wayne Airport)
Irvine, CA

Touted in the media as California's Jobs Czar, Michael Rossi notes that he's not a czar of any kind, but has accepted responsibility for recommending policy and actions on the jobs front to California's elected lawmakers, including the man to whom he reports. With economic development and job creation among California's most critical issues, Governor Jerry Brown appointed Michael Rossi as Senior Advisor for Jobs and Business Development to serve as the point of contact between California's business and workforce leaders and the Administration, to streamline and invigorate the state's economic development infrastructure, and to advise the Governor on regulatory, legislative and executive actions needed to drive job growth. Mr. Rossi will share his ideas and recommendations regarding a state department of commerce, overseas trade offices, and streamlining California's business regulations and regulatory processes.
