The U.S. Economy
A Nation in Recovery

Congresswoman Loretta Sanchez serves on the Joint Economic Committee (JEC), a bicameral Congressional Committee composed of ten members from each the Senate and the House of Representatives. The Committee's main purpose is to continually monitor matters relating to the US economy, including unemployment, foreclosures, and interest rates. The Committee holds hearings, performs research, and advises other Members of Congress. Congresswoman Sanchez will share her perspective on the impact of the Obama Administration's economic stimulus and recovery programs.
