Change and Transformation in the Orange County Sheriff's Department

Sandra Hutchens became the 12th Orange County Sheriff in June of 2008, and is the first to be selected by the Board of Supervisors to serve out the term of a sheriff who retired. Selected from a field of 48 candidates after a nationwide search, her term will continue until January 2011. In April 2008 the Orange County District Attorney released an Investigative Report from a 2007 special Grand Jury Inquiry which identified several areas of concern related to the operation of the Orange County Jail System. The Sheriff's Department took immediate action on release of the report to respond to the most critical public safety issues. Upon being appointed, Sheriff Hutchens also promised a direct and thorough audit of jail operations to identify any other potential problem areas that could affect the safety and security of inmates, staff, and the residents of Orange County. Sheriff Hutchens will share the preliminary results of that audit, as well as her perspective on other important law enforcement issues, when the Orange County Forum greets her as our new Orange County Sheriff.
