Elections 2008
Post-election Analysis

To help make sense of it all - and to examine the various future implications of the results of the November elections on Orange County, the State of California, the nation, and the world, the Orange County Forum has invited the Honorable Art Torres and Mr. Ron Nehring, the State Chairmen of California's two major political parties, to join us in our post General Election analysis. This is a "don't miss" program for everyone interested in the political evolution of public policy.
